

Sample Language for Charitable Bequests in Wills or Trusts

Please share this sample language below with your legal counsel. We encourage all donors or their legal counsel to contact the Ball State University Foundation for guidance as to correct language, especially if you intend your gift to be restricted for a specific use. For example, if you wish to establish a permanent endowment with your charitable bequest, a separate fund agreement to be signed by you and the Foundation should be prepared by us for your consideration. Thank you!

1. Unrestricted Bequests

The following is suggested language for unrestricted bequests to be used for the greatest current need of the university.

I give to the Ball State University Foundation, Inc., a not-for-profit corporation organized under the laws of the state of Indiana and located in Muncie, Indiana (“Foundation”), for the benefit of Ball State University’s WIPB Public Television (“WIPB”), (choose one)

- _____% of my estate or
- the sum of $_____ or
- all my right, title, and interest in the following described property:
_____ or
- all the rest, residue, and remainder of my estate

to be used in such manner as WIPB shall, in its sole discretion, determine.

2. Restricted Bequests

The following is suggested language for restricted bequests to be used for a purpose designated by you.

I give to the Ball State University Foundation, Inc., a not-for-profit corporation organized under the laws of the state of Indiana and located in Muncie, Indiana (“Foundation”), for the benefit of Ball State University’s WIPB Public Television (“WIPB”), (choose one)

- _____% of my estate or
- the sum of $_____ or

- all my right, title, and interest in the following described property:
_____ or
- all the rest, residue, and remainder of my estate

to be used for the following purpose: _____

The designation of the preferences for which this gift is to be used shall not be construed as requiring the administration of this gift as a trust, the furnishing of bonds, or the making of annual reports to the court.

In the event the board of directors of the Foundation, in its sole discretion, determines that the use of this gift for the preferences stated is no longer legal, practical, or possible of performance, or for other good and lawful reason, then said preferences should be changed, and said board of directors shall use this fund for such purposes as said board, in its sole discretion, determines will best promote and support WIPB.

3. Restricted for Endowment

For restricted bequests to establish a named permanent endowment fund, we suggest the following:

I give to the Ball State University Foundation, a not-for-profit corporation organized under the laws of the state of Indiana and located in Muncie, Indiana (“Foundation”), for the benefit of Ball State University’s WIPB Public Television (“WIPB”), (choose one)

- _____% of my estate or
- the sum of $_____ or
- all my right, title, and interest in the following described property:
_____ or
- all the rest, residue, and remainder of my estate

to be used for _____.

Details for the management and administration of this fund are contained in the final Fund Agreement with the Foundation signed by me and the appropriate representative of the Foundation before my death.

The property constituting this gift may, in the sole discretion of the board of directors of said Foundation, be merged with the general assets of said Foundation for more convenient administration or investment, but the gift shall be entered in the books and records of said Foundation as _____ and this fund shall be used for the preferences as defined in the final Fund Agreement with the Foundation signed by me and the appropriate representative of said Foundation before my death.
