

JUNE HIGHLIGHTS

BALL STATE PBS

Now Entering... South Muncie explores the rich history of Muncie's southside — a neighborhood shaped by the city's industrial and manufacturing boom, but defined by far more than its past. The documentary highlights the resilience, compassion, and determination of a community coming together to rebuild and reimagine its future. Thursday, June 25 at 8 p.m.

Interactive sculpture park "Habitat Haven" by Greg Mueller, located across the street from The Common Market.

Patience "Vampire" (Season Two Premiere)

When a famous photographer is found dead with a stake through his heart and his body drained of blood, Patience and new DI Frankie Monroe seek a logical answer to the vampire-like mystery. Sunday, June 14 at 8 p.m.

Grantchester "Season 11, Episode 1" In the summer of 1963, the Grantchester family must face love, loss, and forgiveness one last time. In episode 1, a drive-in fundraiser turns deadly, leaving Alphy with a surplus of confessions and a painful truth. Sunday, June 14 at 9 p.m.

Declarations: Black Americans and the Revolutionary War A documentary that follows the stories of enslaved and eventually freed Black Americans who believed, exercised, and fought for fundamental tenets of democracy for themselves, their families, and their community. Monday, June 29 at 10 p.m.

Join us on the red carpet for Now Entering...South Muncie

Watch an early screening of this episode of NOW ENTERING at our Red Carpet Premiere on Thursday, June 18, from 7 p.m. to 8 p.m. at Cornerstone Center for the Arts. The screening will be followed by a panel discussion with storytellers from the documentary and production crew.

Discover the flavors of the southside as we visit Red Dog Saloon and the Rosebud Coffee House. Jam out and chill out at the Common Market, a southside community hub. Hear from local organizations like the Ross Community Center and the 8Twelve Organization about how they uplift their community. Learn from local historians and neighbors about how industry developed in the southside and their hopes for the future of South Muncie.

Free screening & genealogy event

Join us as we present selected scenes from THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION, a film by Ken Burns, Sarah Botstein & David Schmidt.

The evening will also honor Revolutionary War Patriots and introduce genealogy tools for discovering your own Patriot connection.

Featured presenters include Theresa Green, Indiana State DAR Registrar; Kathryn Kesterson, Regent, Paul Revere Chapter; National Archives Resources & DAR Genealogical Research System. Thursday, July 9, 6-7:30 p.m. at Carnegie Library, 301 E. Jackson St., Muncie, IN.

INDIANA PUBLIC RADIO

The Facing Project

Citizenship: Notes on an American Myth

Kelsey Timmerman is joined by author and educator Daisy Hernández to discuss her new book, Citizenship, a provocative and intelligent examination of our country's ongoing debate about what it means to be an American. In their conversation about her work, Hernández braids together memoir, history, and cultural criticism to expose the truths and lies of how we define ourselves as a country and a people. Saturday, June 27 at 1 p.m.; encore Sunday, June 28 at 7 p.m.

June jazz: The soundtrack of film noir

During the 1940s and '50s, jazz played a pivotal role in Hollywood crime films and film noir movies. This carried over to police and private eyes on TV. Join BlueNotes host Larry Beck for two hours of "Jazz for Crime, Spies & Private Eyes." Hear tracks from Peter Gunn, M Squad, Dial M for Murder The Big Heat and many more. Saturday, June 27 at 8 p.m.
